

Leave and Benefits Policy

Illustrative leave categories, request process, and benefits

DEMO DOCUMENT — Fictional company and policies created for testing DocuMind AI. Not legal, HR, or security advice.

1. Annual Leave

Full-time employees receive 18 working days of paid annual leave per calendar year in this fictional policy. Leave is prorated for employees who join during the year.

Employees should request planned leave through the HR portal at least five working days in advance. Approval depends on team coverage and business needs.

Unused annual leave may be carried forward up to a maximum of five days, subject to manager approval. Any remaining balance is handled according to the applicable employment agreement and law.

2. Sick Leave

Full-time employees receive 8 working days of paid sick leave per calendar year under this sample policy.

Employees should notify their manager as early as possible on the first day of illness. For absences lasting more than two consecutive working days, HR may request appropriate supporting documentation, subject to applicable law.

Sick leave is intended for illness, injury, medical appointments, and recovery.

3. Public Holidays

The company observes the public holidays listed in its annual holiday calendar. The calendar is published by HR at the start of each year.

Teams providing essential customer support may have different schedules. Managers should arrange compensatory time off where required by policy or law.

4. Parental and Caregiving Leave

Employees should contact HR to discuss parental, adoption, or caregiving leave. Eligibility, duration, pay, and documentation depend on the employee's location, employment terms, and applicable law.

Managers should handle such requests confidentially and avoid asking for information beyond what is reasonably required.

5. Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may receive health coverage, learning support, and access to an employee assistance program, subject to plan terms and enrollment rules.

The learning-support allowance in this fictional example is up to INR 12,000 per calendar year for approved job-related courses, books, or certifications. Receipts and manager approval are required.

Benefits may differ by role, location, employment type, and provider terms. The official plan documents govern eligibility and coverage.

6. Request and Approval Workflow

Submit the request in the HR portal, include the dates and leave category, and wait for manager approval before making non-refundable plans.

For emergencies, notify the manager directly and submit the formal request when practical.

HR maintains the official leave balance. Employees should report discrepancies to HR with supporting details.

7. Example FAQs

Q: How much annual leave does a full-time employee receive? A: 18 working days per calendar year under this sample policy.

Q: How much learning support is available? A: Up to INR 12,000 per calendar year for approved job-related expenses.

Q: Who approves planned leave? A: The employee's manager, using the HR portal workflow.

End of sample document.